The Waily News

Who was He?-A capital story is told us of an old farmer in the northern part of this county, who had been "eaving up" to take up a mortigage of $2000 hold against dim by a man nearer the sea shore. The farmer had saved up all the money in gold fearing to trust the banks in these war times. Week before last, he lugged down his gold and paid it over, when the tollowing coltoquy ensued:

"Why, you don't mean to give this, $2000 in gold, do you?" eaid the lender, "Yes; certainly," said the farmer, "I was afraid uf the pesky banks, and so I've been saving up the money in yellow boys for this us of an old farmer in the northern part of

"Take the papers! No, sir; not L They have gone or so since the war's been agoing that I won't have one of the d—lish things about. But the money is all right, isn't it?"

"Yes, all right, $2000 in gold. All right, here's your note and mortgage."

And well he might have called it all right, as the premium on gold that day was 22 per cent, and his gold was not only worth the face of his bond, but $240 besides, enough to have paid for his village newspaper for timself and posterity for at least three centuries. It mays to take the least three centuries. It pays to take the newspaper .- Normall: Gazelle.

Military Incidents.—A friend in one of our Rhodo Island regiments vouches for the truth of the following: A captain in a meighboring regiment, willo trying the guard a few nights sine, was hulled with: "Who gues there?" He, thinking to app a superior officer in giving an embiguous answer, replied, "Two men and a jackass., The sentinal, with ready wit resumed his chalenge with: "Halt, two men and a jackass, Advance! jackass, and give the countersign being received, the give the countersign being reveived, the sentianl continued; "Pass, jacknes, the countersign is correct."
